19 Nominees for 4 Vacancies Face Co-op Voters Wednesday

Four new directors for Greenbelt Consumer Services, Inc. will be elected next Wednesday from the 19 nominations which have been received.

The four members whose terms have expired are all seeking reelection. They are Frank Lastner, chairman, Harry Hyman, Denzil Wood, and Clifford Moyer. Other nominees are Dayton Hull, Mrs. Bea Hesse, Myron Volk, Mrs. John Vachon, Bernard Axelrod, Ben Rosenzweig, Mrs. Evelyn Cooper, Sam Morgenstein, Dr. Hugh Bone, Mrs. Jessie Letkemann, Mrs. Helen Chasanow, Allan Bryan, Paul Dunbar, Ernest Miner, and Dr. Leo Trieman.

Door Prize at 8:15

The meeting will begin at 8 p. m. and a door prize for members will be drawn at 8:15. In addition to the election, business includes consideration of an amendment to the by-laws to provide for a nominating committee.

The complete financial report of Greenbelt Consumer Services, Inc. for the six month period ending June 27 will be presented at this time. It shows that the gross sales of all stores was $295,901.24 with a net margin of $16,574.58. This figure represents a margin of $6844.45 for the first quarter and $9,730.13 for the second three months.

Thomas B. Ricker, general manager, wishes to emphasize that this figure is a normal operating margin. He says that although operations costs declined only 1.3 per cent, retail prices dropped 3.5 per cent, and further that the margin is "a savings return to the consumer which under normal commercial operations would revert to a few individuals represented as owners or stockholders."

G. H. A. Board Asks Berenberg Return

At a special meeting called Tuesday for the purpose of considering a petition signed by 188 member families and 500 other residents, the board of directors of the Greenbelt Health Association voted unanimously to offer a position on the medical staff to Dr. Samuel R. Berenberg. In line with a board ruling that all physicians' contracts in the future be based on a six-months period, renewable automatically, Dr. Berenberg has been offered a contract on this basis.

Mrs. Berenberg, who has been in Greenbelt for the past several days visiting friends, said that she was transmitting to Dr. Berenberg the Association's offer and expects to hear from him within a week. Dr. Berenberg is at present in Alaska, caring for the evacuees from the Pribilofs.

Statement Issued

The following statement was received by the Cooperator as an official release from the secretary of the board:

"The board of directors of the Greenbelt Health Association convened July 28, 1942 in a special session, to consider the petition signed by a number of members. The following motion was approved, by agreement between the medical director and the board of directors of the Association: The usual medical contract will be offered to Dr. Samuel Berenberg."

"A previous motion was passed which stated that the future policy of the board of directors will be to appoint all new members of the medical staff on a first contract of six months.

"Both motions were passed unanimously by the board, clearly indicating that the board of directors wants to secure a trial period of six months, for the members, for the medical staff and for themselves.

"The board further states, 'We can expect to have a stable association, only by a fair attempt at collaboration and by refraining

G. C. A. Summer Dance Is Tomorrow Night

The Greenbelt Citizens' Association holds its informal dance tomorrow night in the auditorium of the Elementary School. Dancing lasts from 10 p. m. to 1 a. m., with the music furnished by Jack King and his orchestra, featuring Rose Mary Shiller as vocalist.

Stanley Ostler, president of the G. C. A., stated that he expected a turnout as good if not better than that for the last dance.

He stressed that this is to be an informal dance and gentlemen may remove coats if the evening is warm. "After all," Mr. Ostler added, "people are coming for a good time not a dress performance."

Tickets Mailed

Over 400 invitation tickets to the dance have been mailed to persons in the defense homes. Mr. Ostler stated that this was the first time a project of this nature has been attempted in Greenbelt and the Citizens' Association hopes it will serve to make the newer residents feel they are a part of the community life.

Tickets will be on sale at the door for 50 cents each or may be secured in advance at 45 cents from one of the following: John Marshall, 18-F Parkway; Dr. McCarl 7-D Crescent Road; Stanley Ostler, 18E Parkway; James Smith, 4-H Southway; William Melton, 18-F Crescent Road; Sally Meredith, 6 Woodland Way; John Teal, 2-H Northway; Murray Krasnor, 14-K Ridge Road.

Publishing Ass'n Picks 2 Directors

Phil Wexler and Donald H. Cooper were elected last week by the Greenbelt Cooperative Publishing Association, Inc., to fill vacancies on the board of directors until October, at which time the regular elections are held. Both are on the staff of the Cooperator.

At the meeting of the association by-laws were agreed upon which would require that all members must work on the Cooperator staff with certain exceptions allowed. Otherwise membership is open to any one interested.

Editor Approved

With the two new directors, distribution of officers is as follows: Mr. Wexler, chairman; Mrs. E. Meredith, secretary; William R. Stewart, treasurer; Mrs. Allen Arness and Mr. Cooper, directors without special office. Mr. Cooper, who had been serving as acting editor of the Cooperator, was named permanent editor to serve until he resigns or is replaced. This is his second term as editor since he served in this capacity from August, 1939, to June, 1940. For the last year he has been associate editor. Before he came to Greenbelt Mr. Cooper was editor of several other small papers, and had taught journalism for a short time.

A financial report of the Publishing Association showed that the paper had net assets totaling $550, although it had been operating at a loss for the last six months.

Bids On Schools Asked By F. S. A. For Opening Wed.

The way was cleared Saturday, July 25, for construction of a new 17-room elementary school here and a six-room addition to the high school, after Farm Security Administration, through the Federal Public Housing Authority, asked for bids on the two structures. Bids will be opened August 5, and construction work is expected to start soon thereafter.

Plans for additional school facilities have been continually revamped and restricted due to war priorities and limited funds, it was learned from reliable sources. The call for bids ends a delay of many months which makes it impossible now to open the new school space until 1943.

The new elementary school will be located north of Northway, among the large area of new defense homes not yet open for occupancy.

1000 Students by Fall

Town officials point out that there is urgent need for additional school space since the present elementary school was built to accommodate only 470 children. The expected increase in population from the new houses here will require facilities for at least 1,000 children by the time the fall term begins.

School authorities are planning to place both the elementary and the high school on double shifts to take care of the anticipated increase in students until the new buildings are completed in January. Mrs. Katherine Reed, principal of the elementary school, says that she plans to maintain teaching standards, and that all students will be under teacher supervision for the same time as previously, except that study periods will be discontinued. This will require more home work for the pupils.

Arrangements are being made for an increased teaching staff.

Siren Tests Planned

Greenbelt's air raid sirens will be tested each Saturday at 11 a. m., it has been announced by Safety Director George Panagoulis. In making the announcement, he urged that all citizens remember that it is a test of sirens only, unless further announcements are made.

Defense Corps Registration Renewed; "Spotters" Needed

By PHIL WEXLER

A new registration for all defense workers, new and old, has already begun. In effect, it is a house-to-house campaign initiated by Mrs. "Honey" Rogers (ably aided by numerous volunteers in each court and block) and will be completed in the near future. All residents interested in joining some defense activity are requested to please fill out the form and see that Mrs. Rogers receives it as soon as possible.

The registration will serve as a personnel file and help officers of the Corps to determine what classes are needed, where men and women should be placed in the various units, and for general information purposes. It is understood that women will be asked to join the defense organization on a much larger scale than in the past. Women will be trained in conjunction with men for all vital defense activities so that Greenbelt can look forward to adequate home protection during daylight raids as men are lost to the Army or are forced to work longer hours in their respective offices.

Cadet Training School Moving Inland on Order of Air Corps; Private Planes To Be Stored

Complying with an order of the Army Air Corps, the training school of Schrom's Airport will be moved inland before August 15, it was announced Monday by Pete Davidson, the airport's clearance officer.

The field is to be operated by the U. S. Army for military purposes exclusively after that date.

Private Airports Closed

The regulation, which states that all private fields must be farther than 150 miles from the coast, has forced many private owners to close their airports, said Mr. Davidson, but since Schrom's is playing such an important part in the Government supervised training program, it was deemed advisable to move inland.

New Sites Investigated

Several locations have been investigated, it was added, both in Maryland and Virginia, but no definite site has yet been decided upon.

The current pilot's training class conducted by Fritz Schrom, owner and chief pilot of the field, has 30 members—25 Army or Navy reserve Cadets, and five potential instructors, being trained by nine instructors, including Mr. Schrom.

These pilots will continue their instruction at the new field which will be administered by Mr. Schrom. Mrs. Schrom will remain at the farm adjoining the Greenbelt field to take care of business affairs here. Mr. Schrom indicated to the Cooperator that he expects to continue Schrom's Airport as a private field after the war, but added that there was little point in planning for that at this time.

Private planes now operating on the local field will be stored for the duration. Only one is owned by a Greenbelter.

Field Not Completed

More improvements are to be made to the local field under the Army supervision. Many planned improvements have been delayed in recent months by the difficulty in obtaining equipment and machinery parts, Mr. Schrom said.

The Schrom field was started in 1927 as a private venture. In 1932 it became a commercial airport. The Civilian Pilot Training program which was so important a part of local flying began in 1939.

Bus Petition Count Shows a Failure; Only 10 Pct Return

Because only 10 per cent of the transportation questionnaires issued to Greenbelters nearly two months ago have been returned, the survey will not be used at the public utilities hearing scheduled to be held in the immediate future, it was announced Monday by Arthur L. Rysticken.

Returns Needed

Granted a 60-day adjournment on May 20, Mr. Rysticken said he had planned to have the survey ready in time to present at the hearing. However, he said, the 10 per cent return, instead of furthering Greenbelt's attempt to prevent Capital Transit's plan of reverting to the shuttle bus system for Greenbelt, would show a definite lack of interest thus defeating its purpose. A miraculous return of at least 85 per cent of the balance would be necessary to prove effective as evidence of the inadequacy of such a system it was hinted.

Still to be used as evidence, said Mr. Rysticken, are the petitions containing approximately 1,900 signatures. The exact date of the hearing was not known this week.

11 Minute Men Leaving for Week At Guard Camp

The first Greenbelt contingent of Minute Men to undergo intensive field training will leave for Camp Herbert R. O'Connor at Cascade, Md., with the State Guard August 2 for a week's stay. The following men are included in the local unit which goes under a temporary enlistment with the Guard for the period:

A. J. Carson, S. R. Edwards, Mr. Homan, B. Rosenzweig, Mr. Mr. Homan, B. Rosenzweig, Mr. Schultz, H. M. Sidlinger, Mr. Stacey, Mr. Symer and Mr. Zabriskie.

Drill was opened Tuesday evening with the distribution of arm band insignia to all men present and with a request for information as to blouse, trousers and hat sizes for the uniforms which will be supplied at an early date. The arm band is to be worn with uniform and insignia of rank.

After a refreshment period under the auspices of the Canteen Unit of the Civilian Defense Corps, the men were assembled in the auditorium of the Elementary School and shown official motion pictures on foot movements and the manual of arms for the squad and the platoon, as well as the etiquette of military courtesy. An official release was also run which emphasized the suffering inflicted on innocent victims and the terrible toll of death and destruction which follows the thoughtless disclosure of military information of any sort to any but those in line of duty to receive it.

Girl Scouts and Girls

All girls, whether Girl Scouts or not, are asked to sign up with the Defense Corps to help in defense work. Many residents will have to attend defense meetings, during emergencies they will have to perform defense duties, women want to participate as donors to the Blood Bank but do not have any one to mind their children—all pointing to a definite need for girls who are interested in doing their bit for home defense.

Second Call

Response to our suggestion for a continuing up-to-date town directory on cards in the Cooperator office has brought enough response so that a nucleus has already been set up. Numbered Cards Speed Meat Counter Service

Greenbelt housewives who have not benefited by the recently installed system insuring prompt service at the meat counter of the Food Store should investigate the time-saving arrangement.

The idea is simple but is proving very effective. Numbered cards are drawn by the customers as they enter, and the clerks have another set which they call in numerical order.

This system will make it easy for the customers to be served in their proper turn, which was previously difficult, especially at rush periods.

Doctor: "I can't quite diagnose your case. I think it must be drink. Patient: "All right, Doctor. I'll come back when you're sober."

Administration Staff Stages Bond Campaign

In a War Savings Bond campaign being staged by the local Administrative Office, 85 per cent of its quota had been pledged by Monday evening, it was announced by Arthur L. Rysticken, chairman of the campaign.

The program, which started at a staff meeting last Friday afternoon, was to be conducted throughout the week, according to Mr. Rysticken. He added that he expected a much higher percentage by the end of the campaign.

Community Church

"Borrowed Trouble" will be the theme of Rev. Wilmer Pierce Johnston's sermon to be preached at the Community Church at 11 a.m., Sunday.

The nursery which has been maintained at the church for the convenience of those who wish to leave their children while they worship Sunday mornings will be discontinued through the month of August. This service will be resumed later.

The regular prayer meeting will be held at the music room Wednesday evening at 8 p.m.

The nominating committee met Sunday and organized with Thad Shannon as chairman, Mrs. James Brice as assistant chairman and Mrs. Harry G. Merriman as secretary. These are to nominate the officers to be elected by the church in its annual meeting the last Thursday in September. Their names are given so that any one desiring to make suggestions for these officers may do so.

The finance committee will meet at the church office, 8-B Parkway Road, at 8 p.m., on Sunday.

The Sunday school picnic, which was postponed from last Saturday because of rain will be held this Saturday at the Lake beginning at 3 p.m. Supt. E. A. Reno pointed out that all are invited to attend. Each family will provide their own supper.

The men's class of the church is holding a membership drive next Sunday. The adult male population of Greenbelt is invited to meet with the class next Sunday morning at 9:30 in the home economics room of the Elementary School.

The class, under the leadership of Roy Braden, follows a lesson outline prepared each week by the International Council of Religious Education. Business meetings of the class are held quarterly on a week-day evening. The class plans to hold its next business meeting at the picnic grounds by the lake. Prospective members of the class are urged to attend on Sunday so that they may be included in the class outing.

4 Sugar Saving Recipes Offered

The following recipes, submitted by Miss Mary McArthur, seem good enough for passing on to you.

Do you want a cool beverage on these hot, sugar-scarce days? Try the following:

Ginger Ale Julip
 Fill a tall glass or glasses, 1/2 full with cracked ice. Add 1 Tbl. mintade to each glass. Fill with ginger ale and garnish glasses with mint leaf.

Strawberry-Pineapple Punch
 1/2 cup strawberry juice
 1/2 cup concentrated or canned lemon juice (juice of 3 lemons)
 2 cups water
 1 cup pineapple juice
 1/2 cup tea

Combine all ingredients. Serve very cold—six servings.

I think just about everyone likes homemade candy. Well, here's what you've been waiting for, a good candy that requires NO sugar! Try it and see if you don't like it, too.

Maple Cream Balls
 2 Tsp. butter or butter substitute
 1/2 Tsp. salt
 2 cups Maple syrup
 1 Tsp. Vanilla flavoring
 3/4 cup chopped nuts

Boil syrup and salt to soft ball stage (234 to 238 degrees). Remove from fire. Cool to room temperature. Add butter. Add flavoring. Beat until creamy. Add half the nuts. Continue beating until mixture is sufficiently firm to mold into small balls. Roll balls in remainder of nuts and place on wax paper to harden.

Now is the time for ice-cream. The following does not call for sugar, either.

Honey Walnut Ice Cream
 2 egg yolks, slightly beaten
 1/2 cup milk, scalded
 1/2 Tsp. salt
 1/2 Tsp. walnut flavoring
 3/4 cups whipping cream
 1/2 cup water
 1 cup honey

Combine egg yolks, milk, salt, water and honey. Chill. Add flavoring and cream. Cook over hot water until mixture coats spoon. Pour into freezer and freeze. This gives eight servings.

Are you a wife-beater? Give the poor gal a break and take her to the G. C. A. dance tomorrow nite.

OUR NEIGHBORS

By SALLY MEREDITH

Hello, Greenbelt:
I don't know about you, but if it's as hot tomorrow night as it has been lately, I'm definitely going to the Greenbelt Citizens Association dance! There's a cooling system in the auditorium, you know. Of course, I'm going anyway, because Jack King's orchestra is surprisingly good, and Miss Shiller's voice is quite appealing.
In town this week was Mrs. "Freddie" Berenberg, Dr. Sam Berenberg's wife. She was visiting Mr. and Mrs. Tessim Zorach. —Mrs. Ethel Moore, 8-F Crescent, is entertaining her parents.—Mrs. MacHyder, 1-B Crescent, just returned from a week in Atlanta, Ga., where she had been visiting her mother.
Miss Dorothy Frances Pratt was married last Saturday, July 25, to James Frederick Rayner. The ceremony, performed by Rev. Frank Stelman, was held in Washington.

Myer Volk is recovering from a broken ankle, but is scheduled to spend the next two or three weeks on crutches.—James Wolfe and family left Tuesday for their home in Middletown, Md., for a week. —Mrs. Bob Thompson has moved from her house at 56-K Crescent to an apartment at 16-B Crescent, since her husband was called by the armed forces.

Mrs. Miles A. Bonnar, 35-G Ridge Road, is on vacation in Massachusetts. She'll return in September.—A new neighbor, Jack Dunagan, went home to Pennsylvania to get his wife and new baby and bring them back.

Thomes F. McNamara, Jr., of 3-C Crescent Road, left last week for Jacksonville to study aviation. —Ken Jernberg, assistant manager of the Food Store, is "in the Navy now." He's stationed at Anacostia.

Athletic Director Benjamin Goldfaden, while supervising sports activities on the athletic field Tuesday, was struck by an attack of undetermined cause. Tuesday night, it still was not known what caused the attack. Here's hoping that by this time he's up and around.

Miss Louise Archer, formerly a teacher at Greenbelt High School, is having a reunion party Sunday, August 4, from 7 to 9 p.m. at her home in Daniels Park, Md., for all graduates of GHS.

Thought for the Week Department: The Bingo system now employed at the meat counter of the Food Store should prevent your standing in line 30 minutes, only to have some one march up and say "I was here first!" I'm glad some one had imagination enough to devise the plan of numbers.

Mrs. and Miss Volkhausen have gone to the Berkshires, where they will spend several weeks at their cottage in Monterey, Massachusetts. Bob Volkhausen will join them there after he has attended the Cooperative Institute at Amherst.

Mrs. Henry Brantigan returned yesterday from a three-week visit in Colorado.

That's all until next week.

New Babies

A daughter, Judith Ann, the first child of Sally and Charles Cookson, 21-A Parkway Road, was born on July 19, at Garfield Memorial Hospital. The baby weighed 8 pounds 4 ounces.
A daughter, Susan Gay, was born to Evelyn and Ernie Boggs Sunday, July 19, at Washington Sanitarium. She weighed 8 pounds 3½ ounces.

Timely Facts for Consumers

Intelligent Consumption Makes for Better, Happier Living.

Mail Order Insurance

Workers are being victimized by a new form of mail-order insurance racket, points out Consumers Union in its current issue. It is called "Family Group Life Insurance."

A typical mail order advertiser says: "There is no reason now why any member of your family should be without life insurance. One policy, costing only $1 a month, can insure them all." The company accepts all members of a family group, ages 1 to 75, without medical examination, under a $1-a-month insurance policy. The maximum benefit is stated as $1,000. The policy buyer naturally assumes this means that each member of the family is insured for $1,000. That is far from the truth. In the first place, the maximum benefit ranges from $100 to $1,000, depending on the age at death. And secondly, this maximum benefit for each individual is divided by the number of persons covered under the policy. For example, if a family of 10—grandparents, parents and children—is insured under such a policy, and if the grandfather dies at 70, the family gets just $10. ($100 maximum benefit at 70, divided by 10, the number of persons covered.)

These family group insurance policies lead people to believe they are protected by insurance, when the amount of protection they get may be negligible.

Canned Peas

Peas are America's most popular canned food. Consumers Union examined 57 of the leading brands, testing two to six cans of each brand for tenderness, and appearance. Among the Best Buys, quality and price considered, were: Sugar Belle Blended; Pacific Small Early; Asco Fancy Small Early; Highway; Kroger's Country Club Quality; Lily of the Valley Early June.

Blackout Curtains

Blackout drills are becoming increasingly frequent, and many persons are finding blackout curtains a necessity. You can spend from 13 cents to $5, depending on how much you are willing to pay for better quality or greater ease of operation. For only occasional use, expensive curtains are hardly worthwhile.

If you pay less than $3 per curtain, opaque paper is a better buy than cloth. The cloth in most cheaper curtains tends to crack and peel, reports Consumers Union. The paper does not peel, is less apt to crack and with careful handling will last a long time.

Paper curtains attached to spring rollers, like ordinary window shades, are in the medium price range and appear to offer the most convenience for money spent.

Store the curtains where they will not be crushed or torn. Examine them after each use, and repair light leaks as soon as they occur, keeping an extra piece of opaque paper on hand for patches.

Whatever kind of blackout curtains you buy, make sure they have been flame-proofed. This is an added protection and should cost little, if any, extra money.

REMAKE COATS

This stock-taking of the family clothing needs and resources will pay you well. Take the matter of coats, for example. Even coats for small children take a big slice out of the family clothing budget. But if you have an adult's coat that is out of style or worn around the cuffs and edges, and you are sure it can't be renovated for continued use, you can probably remake it into an attractive new coat for your small son or daughter.

Success in remaking a coat depends on a number of things! The old coat must be carefully ripped, the material cleaned and pressed, and, if possible, turned. The selection of a reliable pattern is important in making a coat of good design, of the right fit, and of a style suited both to the material and the use to which the coat is to be put.

Most commercial patterns have complete and clear sewing instructions. And bulletins available from government agencies have many useful tips on handling materials and finishing details. Buttonholes are often a stumbling block. With a little practice, you can learn to make good ones. But if they're a problem and you can get commercial ones made at not too great a cost, let the tailor or a seamstress take this job off your hands. And remember that a tailor's final pressing is just the finishing touch your coat needs.

Suits for little boys and girls also lend themselves readily to home sewing and remaking—especially in these days of mixed color schemes for skirts, pants, and jackets. Part of such a suit might be a new sweater knitted of the ravelled yarns of a worn one no longer in use.

COTTON FROCKS

And you don't need to be limited to remaking woollens. Neat cotton frocks for school and play can be made of the good parts of old ones no longer in style. These can be finished with contrasting pieces of raw materials for collars, cuffs, and belts. Playsuits and sunsuits require little material, and can be made of practically any cotton or linen fabrics, attractively finished with inexpensive trim.

The defending champions are: men's singles—Mr. Blanchard; women's singles—Mrs. Martone; men's doubles—Mr. Blanchard and Mr. Bowman; mixed doubles—Mrs. Martone and Mr. Clark.

Dance tomorrow night! 10 'til 1.

Andrus, Provost Play Ball With Uncle Sam

Two more members of the Shamrocks have followed Vince Holochwest into the armed forces of our country—Julius Andrus and Stanley Provost. Julius chose the Navy and is already serving at the Naval Air Station in Anacostia. D. C. Stan has been inducted into the Army and will report some time next week.

Both boys, prominent all-around Greenbelt athletes, have been on the Shamrock squad for the three years of its existence. The fleet, hard hitting Andrus has been regular center fielder right along. The lanky Provost has come along very fast from an awkward beginning in utility roles to take his place as a valuable cog in the Shamrock machinery.

So far, neither man is lost to the team and it is quite possible tht both will be able to continue in the County League stretch drive.

Picco To Manage Shamrocks During Rest of Season

To Johnny Picco, assistant recreation director, has been given the task of managing the Shamrocks for the remainder of the season. Ben Goldfaden has been double skipper of the Big Green and the softball Reps since Vince Holochwest left town and the big fellow feels that every one will benefit by the latest move.

Picco is well remembered for his stellar third base play and his terrific hitting of last season. The husky John had a knee injured in football at George Washington University last fall and will have to time his appearances on the diamond to the vague frequency of good health of his knee.

Reps Hit Filipinos 12-0 in Fast Start

The Reps got off to a fast start in the second half of the County League softball scramble when they scuttled the Filipinos 12 to 0 last Friday. Paul Barnhart pitched a beautiful game. He gave up but three widely scattered hits. Curt Barker led the swatters with three solid bingles.

Surf Club Takes Game From Reps at Stadium

The Reps lost their fifth game in the Washington Stadium brotherhood of softball elite Monday. The score was 7-0 and the winner was the strong Surf Club ten.

Only three hits were garnered of the underhanding of Surf Clubber Bloom. The Reps were sailing along on scoreless even terms as late as the sixth inning but good things ceased to be their lot at that point.

Don't wait up for me, maw, I'm going to the G. C. A. dance tomorrow nite.

War Calls Come First

Please:

- ★ Reduce, in so far as you can, the number of your long distance calls.
- ★ If you must use long distance, please avoid busy hours. Place your call between 12 Noon and 2 P. M., 5 to 7 P. M. and from 10 P. M. to 9 A. M.
- ★ Restrict as much as you reasonably can the number and length of your local calls.

THE telephone is one of the vital means of directing the war effort over the nation. Local and long distance telephone calls continue to grow in numbers. The enlargement of the telephone system to keep pace with this growth is no longer possible, for the critical materials that make up the telephone plant must go for ships and weapons. So we ask your cooperation—confident it will be forthcoming.

"Happy" Walker Tomorrow Night

Tomorrow night John "Happy" Walker and his Pine Ridge fiddlers will entertain club members and their guests at the new club house. There will be square dancing, a Paul Jones, and juke box music for the hep cats.

The juke box is the newest addition to the club house furnishings.

The second half of the club's softball season got away to a rousing start when the Torpedoes and Commandos played a comedy of errors in the most recent game. The Torpedoes came out winning in the last of the seventh, 15 to 14. The schedule for the coming week, with all games starting at 8 p.m., is as follows:

August 1—Torpedoes vs. Blue-jackets.

August 3—Colonels vs. Sailors.

August 5—Yardbirds vs. Blue-jackets.

August 6—Torpedoes vs. Colonels.

Bike Registration Days Announced

All bicycles must be registered between August 10 and August 16 in accordance with the ordinance passed by Town Council July 13, it was announced Monday night by Safety Director George Panagoulis. Failure to abide by the provisions of the ordinance—which includes the registration of bicycles, and prohibits the riding of bikes on the sidewalks between the hours of 7 a.m. and 3 a.m., or without lights between sundown and sunrise—carries a penalty of suspension of permit or a court trial, with fines. The only charge for registration is 15 cents, said Mr. Panagoulis.

"Enforcement of this ordinance should prevent further loss of bicycles and minimize accidents caused by sidewalk riding," the safety director added.

Boys' Nine Wins Again; Downs Kenilworth 6-5

The Greenbelt Boys' baseball team won its fourth straight game on Braden Field Monday evening by eking out a close 6 to 5 thriller from the Kenilworth Boys' Club.

The little Shamrocks took advantage of every slip by the opposition to carve out their win. Donnie Wolfe got the only hit off Kenilworth's Martin but wildness on the latter's part was the main factor of the local success. Jimmie Scordellis was the winning hurler.

Band "Surprises" F Block

The popular Wednesday evening surprise concerts given by the Greenbelt Community Band was heard by the residents of F block this week. Refreshments were served by grateful neighbors. The concert over, the Band marched back to the center of the town with a blare of martial music.

Final Swimming Classes Will Commence Tuesday

Assurances that the swimming pool will remain open during August came this week from the Recreation Department, together with the announcement that the third and last session of the swimming classes of the season will commence Tuesday, August 4.

Registration for this group of classes will be Monday, August 3 from 9:30 to 11 a. m. As in previous registrations each child must appear clad in bathing suit. A swimming test is given to classify the child correctly for instruction. Skin disease tests are also made.

The second session of the season's instructions ended today. The names of those who completed the courses have not yet been announced.

from bringing up those controversial issues which in the past have resulted in antagonistic factions.

"The board requests that all complaints and differences in viewpoint be sent to it. You have elected it to represent you. Give it a chance to iron out difficulties before they are irreparable, and before too many people are involved in them. Once again we call on all people to give collaboration a trial so as to insure an effective health service. After all this still is the main reason for, and aim of, the Greenbelt Health Association."

Instructors of the Civilian Protection School at the University of Maryland were guests of the Greenbelt Civilian Defense Corps Tuesday. Supper was served by the Canteen Unit.
